And [he] shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the tumbling block out of the way of my people. For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabited eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. EXCERPTS FROM POWER OF MIDNIGHT PRAYER

GREAT SPIRITUAL WARFARE PRAYER BOOK

<https://www.amazon.com/Ammunition-Spiritual-Warfare-Midnight-Prayer/dp/1544639457>

★ Midnight is the time that powers of darkness alter the destiny of many. Every night activity of satanic kingdom against you this season will come to nothing in Jesus' name. Believers must be active participants in the spiritual realm. Praying at midnight has great effects on the operations of the dark kingdom. Reduce your sleep! As they meet to determine your fate, you go on your kneel and determine theirs, scatter their meeting and strip them powerless. Why pray at midnight? Midnight (between 12:00am – 3:00am) is known to be the most spiritually active period of the day. You will notice that dreams, revelations, attacks, visitations from the spirit world (both by angels and demonic powers) often come at this time, especially when you are sleeping. And the reason is simple— human beings are easily overwhelmed while asleep. Naturally, the body is weak at this time. And this makes it susceptible to spiritual manipulation. For one to be powerful in the spirit world, the person's human spirit must be guided by a higher Spirit, which in the case of a Christian, is the Holy Spirit. Midnight is always a period of intense spiritual activities both by the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Satan. If you must control activities around you and dismantle Satanic ordinances in your life, then you must learn to wake up at midnight to fight against the powers of darkness.

⇒ WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS ABOUT PRAYER

Matthew 6 is Jesus' model prayer that He gave to the disciples.

Matthew 6:9 "In this manner, therefore, pray: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

He says that part of our prayer is to ask for God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven. You notice here, probably for lack of space, Jesus did not say what that will is. He just said, "Your will be done." The way it is phrased, it does not seem to matter at all, whether we know what His will is or not.

In asking for God's will to be done in this way, we place ourselves in submission to it, no matter what that will is. He is the Boss. So we come before Him in prayer and say, admit, we do not know what is going on, and so we say, "Your will be done."

Jesus here is acknowledging the fact that in many cases, we either do not know God's will or cannot know God's will in a specific matter. And there are reasons for this. There are reasons why there are times we do not know or cannot know. A lot of it has to do with our need to exercise faith. If we knew God's will every time, we would not have a care in the world. God is going to do this. "Okay, I'm going to the beach, because we know how it's going to be." But we do not know.

A lot of times we are stepping out over the abyss. We need to exercise faith because we do not know exactly what God is going to do. So we just have to step out.

Certainly, God wants us to know His will as much as we can. That is part of our job as Christians. But certain matters are well beyond our abilities to understand, far beyond, no matter how righteous we may be; how spiritual we are; how intelligent we are; how insightful on any situation, or anything that we are coming up against. It does not matter.

There are times we do not know His will, as in many cases, we are very human. We are quite limited, especially in comparison to God. He knows everything. He knows exactly what He is going to do, and we have just the smallest inkling of what that is. Let us look at an example. Let us go back to Genesis:18 in the life of Abraham.

This is when the Word, YHWH, came down with a couple of angels to visit Abraham. He was about to leave, and we pick up the story here.

⇒ PRAYER: A POWERFUL WEAPON AND BLESSING

Prayer is the way we unburden our hearts of the anxiety and guilt that plagues us because of sin. It is amazing that people will try everything under the sun to deal with their anxieties and fears (drugs, self-help methods, escapes, and devices) before finally coming to God in prayer.

Therefore humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time, casting all your anxiety on Him, because He cares for you.

- 1 Peter 5:6-7

Notice that Peter doesn't say that we have to work out our problems and give them to God for approval, nor does he suggest that we pray and ask God for the solutions so we can take care of the problems with His divine help (e.g. "God, give me the plan...!). He simply says to take the burden off of your heart and give it to God — that's it! I'm not saying that this absolves us of the responsibility for our lives and problems, but through prayer we can detach ourselves from the anxiety, fear, and stress caused by these things.

Prayer serves us in the same way when we use it to deal with the problems, we have due to the sin in our lives. As Christians, we often sin and fail in living as we ought. God knows this and has given us the avenue of prayer as the starting point in addressing these issues. Yes, we have to resist temptation and secure the help we need to do away with sinful behavior, but as John writes, the first action in combatting sinfulness is to acknowledge it as such and appeal to God for help and forgiveness in sincere prayer.

If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

- 1 John 1:8-9

For the non-Christian, forgiveness is obtained through baptism (Acts 2:38). However, for the Christian, God has provided the spiritual exercise of prayer to accomplish spiritual healing. We need to pray because through this action we leave with God the worry caused by trials and the guilt due to our sins. No other method is more effective to these ends than prayer.

2. We need to pray because prayer initiates spiritual and physical blessings for ourselves and others (Matthew 6:31-32).

In Matthew 7:7, Jesus tells us that we should ask for the things we need and God (who knows what we need) will provide according to His will and purpose.

Our society prides itself on being independent. The self-made man/woman is admired, and we strive to be fully self-sufficient or at least the dominant partner in any type of cooperative enterprise we undertake. As Americans it goes against our training, history, and character to be dependent yet, in reality, this is what we are — totally dependent on God!

- He keeps the universe in order (Colossians 1:17).
- He gives life and rules over death (Job 14:5).

From Adam to the last person born, all depend on God.

Prayer is our expression of dependence on God. We cannot think of or enumerate all of the things needed to sustain our lives from day to day, but in prayer we express our dependence on God for supplying everything we need. In addition to the physical things required, prayer is also the way we access the "spiritual" blessings necessary for growth in the kingdom of God.

In his letter to the Ephesian church, Paul describes certain blessings that are only obtainable through prayer. There are no physical ways to generate things like spiritual wisdom, a clearer knowledge of God, and an understanding of the eternal life we are called to through Jesus Christ other than through an active prayer life.

For this reason I too, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which exists among you and your love for all the saints, do not cease giving thanks for you, while making mention of you in my prayers; that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him. I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints,

- Ephesians 1:15-18

3. Prayer is necessary because it is through prayer that we sanctify (purify) everything that we have in order to consume or use it with a clear conscience and a joyful heart.

For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude; for it is sanctified by means of the word of God and prayer.

- 1 Timothy 4:4-5

Is there anything in this world that is not imperfect because of sin? Are we not compromised in some way no matter what we do? For example:

- Our taxes are often used for ungodly things (i.e. to provide abortions), and this forces our cooperation with evil against our knowledge or will.
- The places we work may not do things in completely righteous ways. This indirectly causes us to participate in unrighteousness by association.
- What we consume as food, ideas, entertainment, etc., is tainted with worldliness, imperfection, and sinfulness.
- Our own motives in what we say and do are often mixed with pride, ignorance, or lust.

How can we, as disciples of Christ seeking to live righteously, survive in this world? How can we continue to live, breathe, and consume the things of this place without violating our consciences day, after day, after day? We could never have peace of mind in any area of life if we did not have God's grace, and we could not express our gratitude and relief for this grace if it wasn't for prayer. Everything created by God is good, however all good things have been spoiled because of sin. Thankfully, all of the flawed things become acceptable through prayer and thanksgiving. Without prayer we remain in the world, and of the world, and never rise above the world.

Summary

I believe that Jesus was a man of prayer because he understood the necessity of prayer within this context:

1. Jesus was without sin personally, but He prayed often to remove the emotional burdens caused by His ministry.
 - Matthew 14:23 - He went off alone to pray after feeding the 5000.
 - Matthew 26:36 - He prayed while in agony in the Garden of Gethsemane.
 - Luke 22:31 - He prayed for Peter's ability to fight off Satan's temptation.
2. He understood the purpose of prayer in acknowledging the Father's will as the source of all blessings.
- He prayed before multiplying the loaves and fishes to feed the 5000 (Matthew 14:9).
3. Jesus clothed Himself with human flesh and became part of a sinful world (e.g. was part of the Jewish nation, observed the rules of the Jewish religion, lived with His human family and disciples, etc.) but he took ordinary bread and wine, and through His word and prayer established these emblems as a holy remembrance of His death, burial, and resurrection (Matthew 26:25).
- We often wonder why Jesus, a Divine being, needed to pray. One possible answer is that it was Jesus' human nature that was active in prayer.
- He dealt with the pressure and sin in this world through prayer.
- He secured the blessings needed to survive in this world through prayer.
- He instituted holy actions to remember Him by through the action of prayer.

Exhortation

I think we fail to have a satisfying, effective prayer life because we concentrate too much on the time, regularity, and method of our prayers. Focusing on these things does not move us to pray. Actually, it does the opposite. It makes prayer just another problem that we have to deal with because we quickly recognize how inconsistent and shallow we are in this area. Jesus did not have a regular "prayer time" or method. He used the avenue of prayer as the tool for communication with God when dealing with the burdens of His ministry, the sinfulness He faced in the world, His personal needs, and thanksgiving.

In the same way we should also pray when we need to unburden our hearts of anxiety and guilt, express our dependence on God, or call on Him to purify us in order to live in this fallen world. Prayer is the method that God has given to us to accomplish these things. It is only when prayer becomes a natural spiritual reflex that it will cease to be a forced habit sustained by will power, and become a natural function of our inner being powered and directed by the Holy Spirit.

But if we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it. In the same way the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words; and He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

- Romans 8:25-27

- PRAY CONFIDENTLY. All of us who follow Jesus Christ have the Holy Spirit living inside of us. If we believe this to be true, then how could we not be confident about coming humbly before the Lord? God's Word tells us,

And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him. (1 John 5:14-15)

Pray with confidence. Powerful prayer takes scripture and prays it holding God to His promises with faith. Faith Leads to Powerful Effective Strategic Prayer. Powerful prayer is effective prayer when faith is added to it.

- PRAY CONTINUOUSLY. POWERFUL PRAYER IS PERSISTENT PRAYER.

Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. Matthew 7:7

God wants us to be persistent in prayer. In 1 Thessalonians 5 the Apostle Paul urges us all to "pray without ceasing" (v. 17). I liken this act to a child who desperately wants something from a parent and continuously asks and pleads with them over a long period of time until they receive God's answer. Pray continuously.

...And I Will Answer You

God answers prayer. We need to be prepared to receive an answer that might not make sense to us.

So, how does God answer prayer? His normal mode of answering is either "yes, no, or wait." No matter how he answers, we can trust that his wisdom far exceeds our own and that he alone knows what is best for us at all times (Jeremiah 29:11). So what are some key components of God's response to prayer?

- PRAY FOR GOD'S ANSWERS IN HIS TIME.

God assures us that he will answer our prayers in his perfect timing. Psalm 69:13 states,

But as for me, my prayer is to you, O Lord. At an acceptable time, O God, in the abundance of your steadfast love answer me in your saving faithfulness.

While we wait for his perfect timing, we must be patient. Psalm 37:7 states,

Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices! Wait on God's perfect timing?

- PRAISE, EXALT, MAGNIFY AND TO GIVE GOD ALL THE GLORY.

God gets all of the glory, no matter our prayers or how they are answered by him. Isaiah 24:15 states,

Therefore, in the east give glory to the Lord; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.

We are commanded to give him glory. God does not share the spotlight with others. Isaiah 42:8 reminds us,

I am the Lord; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols.

We were created for his glory (Isaiah 43:7), and so everything we do for his glory (1 Corinthians 10:31)!

PSALMS 100

Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

² Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

³ Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

⁴ Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

⁵ For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

The Lord calls us to call on him for everything in our lives.

Perhaps one day Alexander Graham Bell's telephone might become obsolete, but calling out to our great God never will. We can be confident that calling out to him through Jesus Christ, God will hear us and answer us in his perfect timing and for his glory.

- KNOW THE MAIN INGREDIENT OF PRAYER.

This means that the locus of effective prayer is not us, but God. Prayer has less to do with the specifics of how we say what we say, and more to do with the one to whom we are saying it.

We pray as ordinary people who have an extraordinary God. We're just normal, you and I. We're just normal like Elijah. Prayer is effective, not because of great men who pray, but because of a great God who in Christ graciously hears his people. He's the main ingredient. So, pray.

- PRAY WITH OTHER GOD LOVING PEOPLE.

Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything that they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father who is in heaven. For where two or three have gathered together in My name, I am there in their midst. Matthew 18:19-20

TESTIMONIES ON GOD HEARING PRAYERS

Psalms 66:17-20

I cried to him with my mouth, and high praise was on my tongue. If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened. But truly God has listened; he has attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me!

Proverbs 15:29

The Lord is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous.

Isaiah 65:24

Before they call I will answer; while they are yet speaking I will hear.

Jeremiah 33:3

Call to me and I will answer you and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known.

Jeremiah 29:12-13

Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart.

Matthew 6:8

Matthew 18:20 ESV

“For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them.”

Mark 11:22-25

And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. Therefore, I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.”

Luke 11:9-13

And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. What father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

James 5:13-15

Biblical Reasons for Unanswered Prayers

<https://biblereasons.com/reasons-for-unanswered-prayers/>

1. Not God's will: We must always seek God's will. It's all about Him and the advancement of His kingdom not you.

1 John 5:14-15 This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.

Matthew 6:33 But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

2. Wrong motives and ungodly prayers.

James 4:3 When you ask, you do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, that you may spend what you get on your pleasures.

Proverbs 16:2 All a person's ways seem pure to them, but motives are weighed by the LORD.

Proverbs 21:2 A person may think their own ways are right, but the LORD weighs the heart.

3. Unconfessed sin

Psalms 66:18 If I had cherished sin in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.

Isaiah 59:2 But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you so that he does not hear.

4. Rebellion: Living a continuous life of sin.

Proverbs 28:9 If anyone turns a deaf ear to my instruction, even their prayers are detestable.

John 9:31 We know that God does not listen to sinners. He listens to the godly person who does his will.

Proverbs 15:29 The LORD is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayer of the righteous.

1 Peter 3:12 The eyes of the Lord watch over those who do right, and his ears are open to their prayers. But the Lord turns his face against those who do evil.

5. Closing your ears to the needy.

Proverbs 21:13 Whoever shuts their ears to the cry of the poor will also cry out and not be answered.

6. You are not having fellowship with the Lord. Your prayer life is non-existent and you never spend time in His Word.

John 15:7 If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you.

7. The Lord could be protecting you from danger that you do not see coming.

Psalm 121:7 The LORD will keep you from all harm— he will watch over your life.

Psalm 91:10 no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent.

8. Doubting

James 1:6 But when you ask, you must believe and not doubt, because the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind.

Matthew 21:22 You can pray for anything, and if you have faith, you will receive it.

Mark 11:24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

9. God didn't answer so you can grow in humility.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up.

1 Peter 5:6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.

10. God didn't answer because of your pride.

Proverbs 29:23 One's pride will bring him low, but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor.

James 4:6 But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, “God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.”

11. Hypocritical prayer for attention.

Matthew 6:5 When you pray, don't be like the hypocrites who love to pray publicly on street corners and in the synagogues where everyone can see them. I tell you the truth, that is all the reward they will ever get.

James 4:2 You desire but do not have, so you kill. You covet but you cannot get what you want, so you quarrel and fight. You do not have because you do not ask God.

19. Treating your spouse badly.

1 Peter 3:7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

20. Not yet: We must wait for God's timing.

Isaiah 55:8 "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the LORD.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-11 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot, a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing, a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace. What do workers gain from their toil? I have seen the burden God has laid on the human race. He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end.

Unanswered Prayers Are Invitations from God

<https://www.desiringgod.org/articles/unanswered-prayers-are-invitations-from-god>

Why does God allow things to happen to us?

Because He knows this and loves us, He doesn't usually interfere with the consequences of our choices. If He forced us to make the right decisions, it would be impossible for us to grow and reach our divine potential. It would be impossible to live by faith in Him and His plan for our happiness.

The Power of Prayer: Healing Verses of The Bible

<https://www.bible-knowledge.com/healing-verses-of-the-bible/#prayer>

It is quite obvious that God the Father has the full divine power to fully heal you of any disease or sickness that could strike your body. So how do you get God to release His healing power directly to you to either heal yourself or someone else you may be praying for?

By direct prayer to God the Father. And sometimes that prayer has to be a prevailing type of prayer, which means that you keep praying to God until you get the healing to fully manifest onto the affected part of the body that will need the healing.

There are many different types of prayer strategies that you can take with the Lord in your own personal prayers to Him. I will be discussing some of these different types of prayer strategies in other articles. But for the sake of this article and this caption, I will give you some specific verses that are telling us that sometimes we have to pray direct to God the Father for a full healing to manifest.

The first 3 verses are specifically telling us to "pray" to God when we are sick and need a healing.

1. "Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray." (James 5:13)
2. "Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the Church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven." (James 5:14)
3. And it happened that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him and prayed, and he laid his hands on him and healed him." (Acts 28:8)
4. "The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much." (James 5:16)
5. "Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4:16)
6. "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." (Matthew 7:7)
7. "Yet you do not have because you do not ask." (James 4:2)
8. "And there is no one who calls on Your name, who stirs himself up to take hold of You ..." (Isaiah 64:7)
9. "So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one." (Ezekiel 22:30)
10. "He saw that there was no man, and wondered there was no intercessor; therefore His own arm brought salvation for him ..." (Isaiah 59:16)
11. "Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses His chosen one stood before Him in the breach, to turn away His wrath, lest He destroy them." (Psalm 106:23)

SOME OF THE MOST POWERFUL BIBLICAL PRAYERS

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.*

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

*And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.*

*And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:*

*For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory, for ever.*

Amen.

Matthew 6:9-13

The 23rd Psalm

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD,
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Jesus looked at them and said,
"With man this is impossible,
but with God all things are possible."

· Matthew 19:26

Psalm 91

Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. You will not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday. A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

If you say, "The Lord is my refuge," and you make the Most High your dwelling, no harm will overtake you, no disaster will come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the cobra; you will trample the great lion and the serpent.

"Because he loves me," says the Lord, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble, I will deliver him and honor him. With long life I will satisfy him and show him my salvation."

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.
